PAPER-II, CRIMINAL LAW-II

TIME ALLOWED: 03 HOURS

TOTAL MARKS: 100

- NOTE:
- (i) Q.No.1 is compulsory.
 - (ii) Attempt FOUR questions selecting ONE from each Part.
 - (ii) All questions carry equal marks

Q.No.1 The prosecution through convincing evidence proved following facts:

- (i) That on 30-03-2019 at 5:30 p.m a raiding party headed by Zahid Mahmood, Inspector (PW3) recovered 2kg charas wrapped in two packets weighing 1kg each from a shopper held by the accused, namely, Farman.
- (ii) That the occurrence took place in the area of chowk Gawalmandi, Lahore.
- (iii) That Zahid Mahmood (PW3) seized the contraband charas and separated 50 grams from each packets and prepared two sealed parcels and secured the remaining bulk into another sealed parcel vide recovery memo (EXPA) attested by the witnesses, namely, Ghulam Abbas (PW-4) and Shaukat Ali (given up P.W)
- (iv) That the site plan of the place of occurrence (EXPB) was also prepared by (PW-3) showing the presence of accused with shopping bag at Point A and presence of witnesses at Point B.
- (v) That Zahid Mahmood also drafted a complaint (EXPC) and dispatched the same to the Police Station for registration of F.I.R. (EXPC/1) through Alam Sher (PW-5).
- (vi) That the investigation of the case was entrusted to Mehr Javed, S.I (PW-6) who visited the place of occurrence and received accused, case property and other documents from PW-3. He recorded statements of witnesses at the spot.
- (vii) That on his return to Police Station PW-6 handed over accused and case property to Karam Dad, Moharrar PW-1, on the same day.
- (viii) That PW-1 handed over two sealed parcels (representative sample) to Muhammad Ameen PW-2, on 03-04-2019 for onward transmission to the Punjab Forensic Science Agency and deposited by PW-2 in the said Agency, on the same day, intact.

PART-II

- Q.No.3 In May, 2002 Mst. Rani was married to Bahadar. Ali was born to them after a year of their marriage. Unfortunately, the relations between the husband and the wife had become strained and according to Mst. Rani she was deserted by her husband. In order to provide future maintenance for her and her son Ali, Lal Din, father of Bahadar, on 26th December, 2003 created a charge by registered deed on his shop and on its rent to the extent of Rs.50,000/- per mensem---Rs.30,000/- per month for Mst. Rani and Rs.20,000/- for Ali. On 15th January, 2005 he also executed a general power of attorney in favour of Mst. Rani for realizing the rents of the shop, on the basis of which she started realizing the same. In August, 2005 Lal Din died and after his death, Bahadar and his mother Mst. Abida started interfering with the realization of the rents and asserted their own rights to the rent of the shop. Thereupon, the suit was brought in 2006 by Ali and Mst. Rani for the grant of a permanent injunction restraining Bahadar and his mother Mst. Abida from claiming, receiving or recovering the rents from the tenants of the shop. An injunction was also claimed against tenants restraining them from paying rents to Bahadar and Mst. Abida.

Whether on the basis of above stated facts a decree can be issued in favour of Ali and Mst. Rani. Express your opinion with reasons?

PART-III

- Whether Ali can enforce his right of pre-emption? If so, when and how?
- Q.No.6 (a) Aslam obtained a decree against Zulfikar in 2000. Aslam died in 2002 leaving a minor son Akbar who attained majority and applied for execution in 2009. Is his application within time by reason of his privilege of minority?
- (b) Please enumerate any ten suits for which period of limitation is one year under the Limitation Act, 1908.

Q.No.7

PART-IV

The minors were residing with the father at Rawalpindi and were being maintained by him. The father while proceeding abroad on a short visit arranged for the education of the children in school at Rawalpindi and entrusted the task of looking after them to his brother. The children were staying in School and expenditure therefor was regularly being met by the father even when he was abroad. In his absence the children were removed and got admitted in school at Lahore by the maternal grand-mother against the wishes of the father who took exception to this action. The maternal grand-mother then filed an application in the District Court at Lahore for being appointed, a guardian of the persons of minors. The father on his return to Pakistan took objection to the jurisdiction of Lahore Court and also filed an application under Section 25 of the Guardian and Wards Act, 1890 at Rawalpindi pleading that the minors had, in his absence, been removed from his custody in a clandestine manner from Rawalpindi. He made efforts to get the proceedings stayed at Lahore but the Lahore Court allowed the application of the maternal grand-mother.

Q.No.8

Naveed married to Mehwish and from this wedlock Abdullah was born on 16th November, 2017. Subsequently, Naveed divorced Mehwish on 1st January, 2018. Mehwish on 3rd March, 2018 instituted a suit for recovery of maintenance allowance @ Rs.20,000/- for herself as well as for her suckling minor son, Abdullah. Naveed contested the suit to the extent of maintenance allowance of Mehwish. Discuss whether the objection of Naveed is valid.

PART-V

Q.No.9

City Today is a newspaper with a wide circulation. One day it ran a front page story "Lawyer feared to have absconded with clients' funds". There was also a photo of the front of an office bearing the name "Khalida & Co." next to the story. The newspaper published the article based on information given by a caller to its landline but it did not verify the facts. Later, it found that it had made a mistake and immediately published an apology. The sole proprietor of the firm Khalida was pregnant during this period. She was depressed and this led to a pre-term delivery.

Whether Khalida may bring an action for defamation against City Today? What defence, if any, might City Today assert, and what is the likely result? Discuss.

Q.No.10

Aslam filed an application for eviction of Javaid from the rented premises. The Notice was served upon Javaid. While coming to the Rent Tribunal for presenting application for leave to contest the left arm of Javaid got fractured in a road accident. He was admitted to hospital. He was discharged from the hospital after fifteen days. Immediately upon discharge, he filed an application for leave to contest denying the relationship of landlord and tenant. Javaid also filed an application for condonation of delay.

PAPER – VI: ENGLISH

TOTAL MARKS: 100

Q.No.1 Write a precis of the following passage and assign a suitable heading to it: (20)

There were many obstacles to the development of commerce in the Middle Ages. Dangers by land and sea had to be considered by the merchant who wished to send his goods to some distant part; but as the towns grew and multiplied, the resolution and ingenuity of man rendered it possible for commerce to increase steadily, till by the dawn of the modern period every country in Western Europe had felt its beneficent influence. When we think of the poorness of communication, the vast forests, the inferior roads, the unbridged rivers, and the innumerable foes lining the trade routes, it would seem, at first sight, almost an impossibility for merchants in the north of Europe to have intercourse with those of the south. Then, again, the narrow spirit of the Middle Ages, the survival of feudalism, offered a difficulty which was almost as prohibitive to the transportation of merchandise as the robbers and pirates, noble and ignoble, who lay in wait for the trembling merchant. There was an elaborate system of dues and tolls which made most goods when they arrived safely at their destination a luxury beyond the means of the average man; and, furthermore, it was the practice for governments in those days to prohibit and prevent passage through their countries. Yet in spite of all difficulties the groups of towns which were developing in Northern and Southern Europe, and the manufacturing centers of the East and West, steadily increased their wealth and prosperity.

فرعونیت، حاکمیت مطلقہ اور پیشوائیت پر، ہامانیت نو کر شاہی پر اور قارونیت جاگیرداری و زمینداری اور سرمایہ داری و سود خواری کی ہر شکل پر دلالت کرتی ہے۔ صنم پرستی کی یہ قسم جتنی زیادہ انسانیت سوز و فساد انگیز ہے، اتنی ہی عالمگیر بھی ہے۔ فرعون ہر زمان و مکان میں مختلف قسم کے نام رکھ کر اور بھیس بدل کر لوگوں پر مسلط ہو جاتے ہیں اور اپنی سیاسی و عسکری قوت اور مذہبی پیشوائیت کی حمایت کی بنا پر لوگوں کی دینی، سیاسی اور معاشی آزادی سلب کر کے ان کے الہ و رب بن بیٹھتے ہیں۔ اللہ کے بندوں پر احکام الہی کے ذریعے حکومت کرنے کی بجائے وہ اپنے احکام و قوانین بلکہ مرضی سے حکومت کرتے ہیں، اس طرح انہیں معاشی لحاظ سے بالخصوص اپنا محتاج بنا کر ان کے ارباب بن بیٹھتے ہیں۔ مزید براں، فرعون لوگوں کے ارباب بن کر ان کو تحریص و ترغیب اور ترہیب کے ذریعے اپنی مدح سرائی، قصیدہ خوانی اور اپنی شان میں نعرے لگوانے پر مجبور کر دیتے ہیں اور اس طرح ان کے الہ بھی بن بیٹھتے ہیں۔ اسلام اسی کو تو دعوائے خدائی کہتا ہے۔

Thus Hindu-Muslim conflict was not merely religious. It was the clash of two civilizations, of two peoples. Who had different languages, different literary roots, different ideas of education, different philosophical sources, and different concepts of art. Such a yawning cultural gulf was enough to destroy any affinity which the two peoples might have had and to bring to naught all efforts at unity. When this cultural variance was combined with diversity in social customs and modes of livelihood the emergence of a united Indian nationalism was doomed without redemption. .
