TIME ALLOWED: 03 HOURS

TOTAL MARKS: 100

NOTE:

- (i) Attempt FIVE questions selecting ONE each from PART-I, II & III and TWO from PART-IV.
- (ii) All questions carry equal marks.

PART-I

Q.No.1 A, who is the purchaser of immovable property sold in execution of a decree and in whose favour a certificate in respect of that property has been granted under Order 21 Rule 94 CPC, applies under Order 21 Rule 95 CPC for delivery of possession of that property. Before A goes to the spot to take possession of that property, B comes into the court and files an application saying that he is in possession of that property on his own account and that possession should not be given to A unless his (B's) application is decided. A is not at all willing for the inquiry. He maintains that the warrant of possession should be issued and that on the prospective objection of B, the Court should not start upon any inquiry at that stage. Not minding the contentions of A, the Court orders that B's application being tantamount to obstruction or resistance in obtaining possession of the property, an inquiry should be started under Order 21 Rule 97 CPC. Whether such a procedure adopted by the executing Court is warranted by the Civil Procedure Code?

PAPER – VI: ENGLISH

Q.No.1 Write a precis of the following passage and assign a suitable heading to it : (20)

It is clear that the Court of Appeal should not interfere with the discretion of a judge acting within his jurisdiction unless the Court is clearly satisfied that he was wrong. But the Court is not entitled simply to say that if the judge had jurisdiction and had all the facts before him, the Court of Appeal cannot review his order unless he is shown to have applied a wrong principle. The Court must, if necessary, examine the relevant facts and circumstances in order to exercise a discretion by way of review which may reverse or vary the order. Otherwise in interlocutory matters the judge might be regarded as independent of supervision. Yet an interlocutory order of the judge may often be of decisive importance on the final issue of the case, and one which requires a careful examination by the court of appeal. Thus in Gardener v. Jay, Bowen LJ, in discussing the discretion of the judge as regards mode of trial says: "That discretion, like all other judicial discretions, must be exercised according to common sense and according to justice, and if there is a miscarriage in the exercise of it, it will be reviewed."
